Changing the world...

November 3, 2009

Dear Friends and Families of Most Holy Trinity,

The Gospel for November 1st, All Saint's Day, was the Beatitudes:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they, who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Matthew 5: 3-10

Jesus was a teacher who challenged all who listened to him. Although he spoke these words to the crowds many years ago, they are still meant for us today in 2009. These words, The Beatitudes, are here to help us be the best that we can be. I have asked the Jesuits to come into the upper grades and talk to the students about the Beatitudes this week so; hopefully, you will be able to have some good discussions at home.

As I type this letter there is a fantastic full moon over the hills next to Most Holy Trinity. Many of us just finished watching our seventh and eighth grade boy's football team play their last game of the year. There is something so special about being so close to the game and being able to watch the boys play. This was the last game for our eighth graders and they went out in style! Thanks go to Coach Millan and Coach Iniguez for leading the boys to our first ever undefeated season. Congratulations to all the boys for a wonderful season of good sportsmanship and excellent team work! They made us all proud on many levels.

Cub Scouts are beginning at Most Holy Trinity. They meet on Monday evenings at 7pm and would love to have more members. Call John Tarbuskovich at 431-7294 for more information. I'm looking forward to seeing our Cub Scouts in their uniforms on special days and sharing their new talents with the whole school community.

Our mini book fair begins today in the library. My niece Kathleen Von Raesfeld came down from Petaluma to introduce your children to these beautiful multicultural books. She will be reading to each of the classes today and tomorrow in the library. The books will be available from 8-4pm both Tuesday and Wednesday. Stop by either before or after school or at lunch and see these special books.

An envelope is going home today with information about our See's Candy fundraiser. See's is such a high quality product that it sells itself, but we still need your help to get the word out that MHT is selling See's. Thank you for your continued support of our fundraisers. Our sale will begin today and continues for two weeks. The candy will be delivered before Christmas break so it's a great Christmas present.

Scrip News: Thank you to all of you for using Scrip to do your shopping. For those of you who would like to know what you have purchased so far this year, please email Teresa Silva at tsilva@mht-school.org.
